Water Shortage Acute; Grass, Students Suffer

15 Groups In May Sing Tomorrow Night

Fifteen groups will participate in the May Sing tomorrow night. This eighth annual contest, sponsored by AWS, will be held in the Main Aud. at 7 p.m.

Each group will sing "Santa Lucia" and one other selection. Dr. Merrill C. McEwen of the music dept. chose "Santa Lucia" as the required song.

The winners will be announced tomorrow night. First place winner gets the rotating trophy. The Kappa Deltas have won the trophy for the past two years.

While the judges make the decisions, Pat Sikes will give a monologue.

Pat Wallace, chairman of the May Sing, asks all groups to be in the Main Aud. 10 minutes before they sing. There will be chairs for them in the Rec Hall.

The groups will appear in this order: 7, Alpha Gamma Delta; 7:10, Alpha Chi Omega; 7:20, Phi Mu; 7:30, Kohl Hall; 7:40, Alpha Delta Epsilon; 7:50, Alpha Delta Pi; 8, WIS; 8:10, Shatzel Hall; 8:20, Chi Omega; 8:30, Alpha Phi; 8:40, Alpha Xi Delta; 8:50, Kappa Delta; 9, Gamma Phi Beta; 9:10, Delta Gamma; 9:20, Delta Zeta.

Sign-Up Dates Scheduled Soon For All Veterans

Veterans may register for the summer session under the GI Bill in 217A anytime during the examination period, May 31 to June 7. Veterans must have their envelopes with all forms completed including the "fees listed" before Veterans Administration forms can be completed.

Registration for the fall can be completed in the VA office after a date to be announced. This date will probably be about Aug. 1.

Veterans should never allow themselves to be out of training under the GI Bill, except for the summer vacations in the case of regular students and winter months during which a veteran is teaching for veteran-teachers.

Before graduation, contemplated changes of course or schools, the veteran should apply to the VA for authorization to make the change desired.

Veterans planning to start teaching next fall must be in school this summer under the GI Bill in order to be entitled to the special ruling pertaining to veteran-teachers.

Veterans graduating in June must apply for a supplemental certificate before July 25, in order to continue training under the GI Bill in Graduate School this summer or next fall.

Each case is decided on an individual basis. Any questions should be referred to Ralph H. Geer, Veterans Counselor, or to the VA Regional Office, Cleveland, O.

Litherland At Meeting Of Administrators

Dr. Herschel Litherland, dean of the College of Education, will attend a conference on the subject of professional preparation of school administrative officers at Granville, O., on Friday, May 25, and Saturday, May 26.

The conference is in connection with the Ohio State University program to improve the professional training of school administrators.

Voice-Piano Recital Presented Thursday

Bonnie Smith, pianist, and James Jarvis, bass, will present a combined piano-vocal recital in the PA Aud., at 8:15 p.m., Thursday, May 24. Betty Sunderman will accompany Mr. Jarvis.

Miss Smith is a senior, and Jarvis a junior in the Department of Music Education.

Included in the piano selections will be "Prelude and Fugue in F Minor" by Bach; "Rondo in A Minor" by Mozart; two Preludes by Chopin; "The Eagle" and "The Shadow Dance" by Mac Dowell; and "Three Fantastic Dances" by Shostakovich. Mr. Jarvis will sing: "Vittoria Mio Core" by Carissimi; "Sapphic Ode" by Brahms; "Morgen" by Strauss; "Aufenthal" by Schubert; "Deh Vieni Alla Finestra" from "Don Giovanni" by Mozart; "Vision Fugitive" from "Herodiade" by Massenet; "O Thou Billowy Harvest Field" by Rachmaninoff; "My Lady Walks in Loveliness" by Charles; "A Wanderer's Song" by Rasbach; and "When I Have Sung My Songs" by Charles.

Tickets for the Senior Prom may still be obtained in the Well from 1-4 p.m. daily.

In a spectacular finish, Sigma Alpha Epsilon roared down the straightaway beating out Kappa Sigma by two minutes to win the first annual Delta Upsilon Bike Race, Saturday afternoon.

Both fraternities completed 173 laps in the 24-hour marathon, for a total of 397.9 miles, but SAE crossed the finish line two minutes before Kappa Sigma, forcing them into second place.

New Showers For Shatzel Completed

The $26,000 modernization of Shatzel Hall shower room facilities, which was begun last summer, was completed last week, it was announced yesterday by John K. Raney, University architect.

Four new shower rooms, the most modern in any state institution according to Mr. Raney, have replaced the old marble compartments and bath tubs with which the original shower rooms were equipped. The all-glass-and-tile showers feature a fan system which removes all water vapor from the air.

11 Pre-professional Students Accepted

Eleven pre-professional students enrolled here have been accepted in professional schools for next year.

Of the group, seven are entering medical schools and the remaining four, dental schools.

Robert Lanzer, Don Cook, Lois Zimmerman, Richard Zbornick, William Wagner, Richard Sodaberg, and Ken Ziegenbusch will go into med schools. Wally Loo, Don Hilty, Stan Gilliland, and Jack Morimitsu will be in dental schools.

The University of Cincinnati has accepted four, Ohio State University two, and the University of Illinois one.

Of the pre-meds, one each will go to Marquette, Ohio State, Michigan, and Western Reserve.

Catalog Distribution

Catalogs will be distributed beginning Wednesday in the Registrar's Office, according to Catalog Editor Robert O. Jaynes.

The catalogs contain descriptions of courses which will be offered by the University next year.

Classes Scheduled Despite Lack Of Showers, Plates

Classes will be held as usual in spite of the critical water shortage, according to a directive from Pres. Frank J. Prout's Office. Bowling Green's public schools have already been closed in an effort to conserve water.

University officials have requested students and faculty members to aid in the conservation program by reporting all fixtures that waste water and by avoiding the use of water whenever possible, especially in the case of showers.

Delta Zs Get New Housing

Urschel House will be used as a University Guest House next year, if the new Delta Zeta house is completed by September.

The new home of Delta Zeta, who is now occupying the great house, is being built next to Urschel Pond, and girls have been assigned rooms there for next year. The new building will be similar to the Alpha Phi house.

Some changes in men's housing for next year are necessary to make room for the Air Force men.

Next semester, both West Hall and North Dorm will be occupied by Air Force men. However, all men now living in these dorms who will return to school next year and wish dormitory housing have been assigned rooms in other dormitories.

Sr. Gown Distribution

Caps and Gowns will be distributed Monday and Tuesday, May 28 and 29, in the social kitchen located at the rear of the Rec Hall. The hours will be 9 a.m. to 12 and 1 to 4 p.m. They will be distributed again on graduation day for those who do not wish to use them Honors Day, May 30.

Rev. Carter Speaks For SCF Banquet

"The Church on the Campus," topic of Rev. Laten Carter, director of Kent State University's United Christian Fellowship and the installation of 43 new officers and chairmen, will highlight the sixth annual banquet of Student Christian Fellowship on May 27 at 6 p.m. at the First Presbyterian Church.

Rev. Carter, who heads the student religious organization at Kent which is similar to our SCF, is a graduate of Missouri Valley State Teachers College and McCormick

LATEN CARTER

Theological Seminary and was from 1945-46 a Navy Chaplain. He is a member of the United Student Christian Council, New York City, and has been at Kent since 1947.

Retiring cabinet of the SCF will be in charge of the installation of next year's officers of which Morgan Roberts is president. Also a dramatized report of the year will be presented.

Harris Budoff is general chairman of the banquet and helping committeemen are: Shirley Good, Mary Elaine Ahrens, Marcia Griffin, Zola Schad, and Joan Smith.

All students, faculty, and staff of the University are invited. Tickets are $1.25 and must be obtained in the Chapel offices or from members by tomorrow.

"May Queen and Court" candidates take their place tomorrow and Thursday for the last all-campus election of the semester. The Queen, her attendant, and three court ladies will be selected to reign at the Honors Day activities held May 30.

A preliminary election tomorrow will shorten the list of aspirants for a final voting Thursday. B. J. Morris, Elections Committee chairman, reports that fewer students voted in the last final than in the primary, and she stresses participation in both.

The 16 finalists' photographs will be displayed Thursday at 9 a.m. Preference must be listed in numerical order. First-place votes judge the winner in each class group. The runner-up of the senior class will act as attendant to the Queen.

All campaign posters must be taken down by 8 p.m. Wednesday. (A News announcement in the last issue erroneously stated 8 a.m.) No campaigning is allowed for the final candidates.

Fraternity Row Gets Additions

Bricklaying for the new additions on the houses of Fraternity Row will begin this week, according to J. K. Raney, University engineer. The foundations for all additions were completed last Friday.

The 16 by 20 rooms will be used for studying. Features of the additions will include: acoustic ceilings, modern fold partitions between it and the present lounges, and a large picture window decorated on the exterior with a large planting box.

Construction began May 7 and will be completed by Sept. 1. The contract is being handled by the Watts Construction Co. of Toledo. The estimated cost for each addition is $5,800.

Key Distribution

Keys will be distributed from 2:30 to 4:30 p.m. Wednesday in the Key Office.

Water Is Scarce . . .

The water situation in Bowling Green is critical.

Simply stated and yet packed with importance is this statement released from President Prout's office this morning. Bowling Green officials are urging students to conserve water whenever possible. Let us hold to this suggestion and say that all dormitories that have occasion to use any amount of water should conserve whenever possible.

This situation that arises almost annually provokes many and perhaps rightly so. Students wonder why they should suffer for the shortcomings of a poor water system. The truth is, they shouldn't. But, the fact is the situation is on hand and everyone must cooperate to lessen its effect.

Bowling Green is now working on a new million dollar water system that will avoid any future trouble. Students should take this fact into consideration when they start to criticize the present situation. The University is involved in the shortage and in part has caused it unintentionally. With the University growing like it has, and the demand for more water to fulfill the needs of the students, every year the situation has grown more critical as the demands have grown heavier.

Right now the important thing is to hold down the situation to a minimum. That is why Dr. Prout has issued orders to conserve; that is why the campus police were around Sunday night to dorms to inspect; that is why everyone must cooperate to ease the drastic situation that has arisen.

Three Students Fined In Student Court

In Student Court Wednesday action in the traffic-violation case of Peter J. Hoffman was deferred until next week. The defendant pleaded guilty to the charge: failure to make a safety stop at a designated stop street on campus. Charles E. Ludwig appealed last week's decision of the court pleading insufficient notification and advertisement of speed regulations. The court upheld its decision and Ludwig was fined $3.

Richard C. Lewin was found not guilty of a parking violation. He was warned, however, to make certain his vehicle could not be moved after parked in its designated zone. William E. Hicks was found guilty of parking across a crosswalk. He was fined $1. Andrew F. Marko was tried in absentia for parking his car in the wrong zone and the case was referred to the Dean's office. He was fined $3.

A few sororities during the early morning hours brought hot coffee for the contestants.

Accidents during the race were kept down to a minimum. However a couple of bad spills were taken by the riders, but no one was injured. One bicycle struck an onlooker in the street, both rolling to the concrete, but neither was hurt.

Trophies for first, second, and third place and for the fastest last lap were presented by Dr. Robert W. Twyman, professor of history.

Price Plans For Future In Senate Work Next Year

By HILBERT BLACK

Those students who had enough interest to attend the Election Rally probably heard Denver Price, our new Student Senate treasurer, say, "I will try to help the Senate in using more foresight and looking towards the long range effects, when passing legislation."

Serving on the Executive Committee as one of his duties as Senate treasurer, it will be quite possible for Denver to keep his promise.

Guy Kersh Elected As KAM President

Guy Kersh was elected president of the Bowling Green chapter of Kappa Alpha Mu, national recognition society in photo journalism, at the last meeting.

Other officers for 1951-52 will be Howard Hahn, vice president; Carol Carsten, secretary; Shirley Good, treasurer; and Pat Osborn, publicity chairman.

The local chapter of Kappa Alpha Mu was granted its charter in 1949 when 12 members of the former News Photo Club were initiated as charter members. At present, there are 20 active members and one honorary member in the organization.

In order to become eligible for membership, one must have a 3.0 average in photography courses and a 2.2 in all other subjects, or have worked on publications as a photographer, showing proficiency and interest in journalistic photography.

He plans to take an Interest Aptitude Test to find out more specifically where in the business field his interests lie. He is also in the ROTC.

Denver has always had a keen interest in sports as is evidenced by his high school record. Among those sports in which he participated are football, basketball, and baseball. He is playing third base on his fraternity softball team.

A member of Kappa Sigma social fraternity, Denver is a member of the budget committee of that organization, another indication of his interest in financial matters.

Denver has been working with groups since he was 16, a fact that is always indicative of willingness to work towards the better of that group. Thus keeping the group as a whole in mind, or rather the student body, he states that no favoritism will be shown in selecting members for committee positions, since one of the jobs of Senate executives is to receive applications for committee positions.

Sideglances

By W. DUANE ZUMBRUNN

SORE, TIRED muscles were the order of the day Friday and Saturday during and following the Delta Upsilon bike race.

One rider, Ronald Cohen, landed in the University hospital following a collapse. It is reported that he keeled over from heat exhaustion. After he had rested Saturday afternoon and night, he was released Sunday morning.

Evidently he was the only casualty in the 24-hour marathon although other cyclists had to be aided off their vehicles after each lap of the 2 1/2-mile course.

Breakdowns on the part of the bicycles were frequent. Flat tires and broken chains gave a rise to the hopes of fraternities who were only a couple laps behind.

One disinterested person threatened to spill a box of tacks on the course, but he must have seen how tired the men were during the race and taken pity on them.

Although most riders were thoroughly worn out during the race, it was apparently a different story when the race had become part of the history of the University. Fatigued riders all smiled when it was all over but the shouting on the part of the winners, Sigma Alpha Epsilon.

The sponsors of the race, the men of DU, should receive a special commendation for originating such a contest at Bowling Green. It provided a test of physical endurance, group planning, and friendly rivalry throughout the event.

It was quite evident that the sponsors of the affair had done a great deal of planning and organizing themselves. Everything seemed to go off on schedule. It could develop into an annual contest.

AN INCREASE in the number of persons taking advantage of the swimming facilities on and near the campus should be extremely noticeable in the next couple days. The reason for this remark is that students have been requested to refrain from taking showers for the duration of the water shortage.

Water, one of the most abundant products in the world, has once again been termed in a critical condition in this town. It's getting to be a habit. This makes it twice in one year that a reported shortage exists.

BEARDS COULD become popular on campus again following the the Sadie Hawkins festivities this past week end if the water shortage continues. If this be the case, the University would be able to breathe more easily, especially if the famous roadside shave cream ads are correct when they read:

"A beard that is overgrown is better than a chaperone." A problem of finding adult chaperones would no longer exist.

ONLY SIX more class days remain before exams begin. Start cramming.

Casper Notches Third Win Falcons Meet Hillsdale Today

By HARRIS BUDOFF

Southpaw Dick Casper became the first Bowling Green hurler to win three games as the high-flying Falcons tripped Kent State Friday for their seventh consecutive win.

Today, Bee Gee will attempt to run the victory streak to eight as the Stellersmen face Hillsdale College here. Game time is 3:30.

The victory over Kent State was especially gratifying to Coach Warren Steller. In nine previous meetings with the sister university during his 26 years at Bowling Green, the Falcons have never before finished on top. A victory over Ohio State on May 29 will go far toward making this season one of the best in his career.

Bowling Green sewed up the contest with three runs in each of the first two innings. With one out in the first, Server was hit by a pitched ball, Johnny Grill walked and both runners scored on a double by Howie Tesnow. Carnahan singled to send Tesnow across.

Ray Williams drew the first of four walks issued to him to open the Falcon second frame. Gordie Williams singled.

Casper forced Gordie but a base hit by Omori, a walk to Server, and Grill's 2-bagger sent Wilson to the showers and produced the Bee Gee tallies.

Reliever Kilbane held the Falcons to five hits the rest of the way but he kept himself in hot water by giving up nine bases on balls.

After Alvado opened the game with a single, Casper struck out the next two hitters. Successive errors by Server and Gordie Williams allowed the speedy shortstop to score an unearned run.

The only issue in doubt thereafter was the number of strikeouts Casper would register. The big boy notched three in the first and seventh and finished with a total of 16. Kent got but three hits and the Falcon outfield handled only four putouts all afternoon.

Johnny Grill, Jerry Omori, and Howie Tesnow each had two hits. Grill batted in four runs to set the pace in the payoff column.

Sig Eps Win Kegling Title By Edging ATO In Play-Off

Sigma Phi Epsilon won the crown in the Fraternity Bowling League when they defeated the Alpha Tau Omega in a play-off series last Friday night. The two teams had ended the regular season in a deadlock.

The Sig Eps had to take four points from Phi Kappa Tau last Thursday night to gain the tie. Had they dropped just one, the ATOs would have had the title.

Besides taking first place, SPE also took the trophy for high team game and also were tops in high team series.

The Sig Eps held the lead early in the season but lost it about midway through the period. At this point the ATOs took over and were not displaced until they were beaten for the crown.

The team members of the winning frat were Russell Bresien, Bob Bresien, Dave Ledvina, Dick Phinney, Dave Lacey, and Don Stelzer. All will be back next year to try to win again. ATO will lose only one man.

Phinney ended up with the second highest individual average. George Tamura of Theta Xi took the honors in this department with 171. Phinney's average of 170 was just one pin behind Tamura's.

Sigma Nu finished a close third with Sigma Alpha Epsilon fourth and Theta Xi wound up fifth.

The members of all teams will attend their annual banquet tomorrow night at the Midway Night Club at which time the trophies will be presented.

Netmen Lose; TU Whips Golfers

Bowling Green suffered a double defeat last Thursday when the tennis and golf teams both lost matches.

The linksmen bowed to Toledo University at Toledo, 11½ to 6½. Tom Smith, former Bowling Green golf star, was low man for Toledo with a 72. Dick Bargman of Toledo, had a 74. Dick Zbornik and Jack Chapman, both of Bowling Green, had scores of 76 and 77 respectively.

The tennis team was defeated on their home court by Wayne University, 7-1. Dick Cook accounted for BG's lone point by defeating Bob Fognine of Wayne.

Thinclads 4th In CCC Meet; Stroud First In High Jump

Falcon trackmen took one first and tied for another as they finished one-half point behind Wayne University in fourth place in the Central Collegiate Track Meet at Peoria, Ill., Saturday.

High jumper Vern Stroud was the only individual first place winner with a leap of six feet two inches in that event while Sophomore Steve Mahoney tied for the championship with a 12-foot vault in the pole vault.

Bill Jordan garnered team points with a second in the 100 and fourth in the 220 while edging out several 9.6 performers. In the distances Larry Hall turned in a 4:30 in the mile as he took fifth, while Marv Crosten took sixth in the 2-mile with a 9:59. Lee Pate was ill.

Marquette won the meet which included 10 teams from throughout the midwest. Notre Dame was in second, while Wayne edged the Falcons out of third with 17 points to BG's 16½.

Next meet will be at the Ontario Relays in Canada this Saturday.

After dropping their first three games, the BG nine has won seven straight.

Track Meet Thursday

The fraternity track meet scheduled for last Thursday will not be run off until Thursday evening due to track conditions. The meet was canceled last week because the track was being rolled for the high school county track meet Saturday.

SAE, Undeated, Leads Frat Baseball

Sigma Alpha Epsilon has clinched at least a tie in the fraternity baseball race.

They have won 12 games without a setback. Trailing them are Delta Tau Delta with a 10-2 record and Sigma Nu's mark of 9-3 is good for third.

SAE defeated the Phi Deltas 12-11 in extra innings and Sigma Nu 4-1 last week to extend their string.

They meet Delta Tau Delta this Saturday.

Let's Face It! College Talk Is The Greatest!

By NANCY NOON

If it is true that a large vocabulary is the sign of an educated person, as some authorities lead us to believe, then it must be that their investigations did not include college students, or that college students have not heard the results.

The current trend, instead of aiming for vocabulary building, seems to be heading toward a high degree of vocabulary limitation and standardization.

Locally, this trend manifests itself in a "terrific" crop of campus clichés that are "just out of this world." No kidding.

For instance, no "real rah-rah" college man would object to being known as a scream, a riot, or a panic but if he reaches the heights of being called a character, he's really in.

Similarly, the coed who is greeted with, "Hi, doll," may be unusually attractive, or she may just have a lot of friends who call everyone "doll."

A new phase is to repeat short words, e.g., doll-doll, great-great—you know what I mean. Common names become Pat-Pat, Jo-Jo, etc. etc. This is hardly fantastic at all. You know it! (I guess.)

The student who didn't "get on the ball" before an exam is usually "beat" when it's over, unless he was able to "snow him" (or her). The him (or her) here refers of course to the professor, and the snow has an obscure relation to some fast talking or some eloquent exam writing, whichever proves more effective. How 'bout that?

Leavetakings, often a awkward moments for the unenlightened, present no problem to the college student. A simple "See ya," with an optional "Don't work too hard," will always suffice.

What're you gonna do?

Greek Social Calendars Are Crowded As Summer Vacation Draws Near

By MIMI BAADE

With only two weeks to go till the long-awaited vacation begins, Bowling Green's Greek organizations are crowding their calendars with social activities, and those students who are still pledges are trying to guess when the great day will arrive.

Sigma Nus and their dates had an all-day hay-ride picnic at Farnsworth Park on May 12.

WIS had an initiation Sunday morning. Breakfast was served to the new and old members. Shirley Sanglio was in charge of the initiation.

Alpha Phi's were entertained by alum Mrs. McKay at a wiener roast in the back yard of her new home Thursday night.

Anne Swigart was given the award for the model pledge at the Kappa Delta Initiation Banquet Wednesday at the Women's Club. Kathy Schuler was given the award for the highest scholarship in the pledge class, while Miriam Mercereau received the award for the highest scholarship in the active chapter. Angie Palermo was named the outstanding senior of Kappa Delta.

PIKA named Bill Bishop their outstanding senior.

An all-campus serenade was given by the Phi Mus last Tuesday night. On Thursday afternoon they held a tea in honor of their National Inspector and District President, Mrs. Keith Tyler. The sorority initiation banquet was held Saturday evening at the chapter house. Mrs. Kathryn Gilchrist, past District President, was guest speaker.

Delta Upsilon's new officers are: Jack Jadel, president; Joe Livoti, vice president; Don Silver, recording secretary; and Dave Broughton, corresponding secretary. The DU annual Rose Formal was held Friday evening in the Nest with roses being the decorations.

Sig Eps entertained their pledges with an outing last Saturday at Van Buren. Powell's Pond was host to 11 pinned Sig Eps last week.

Elected to lead Phi Kappa Psi fraternity next semester are: Don Bartrip, president; Jake Jacoby, vice president; Dave Neff, secretary; and Hugh Smith, chaplain.

New actives of Chi Omega entertained the Delta Tau Delta pledges with a party Wednesday evening. Refreshments were served on the front porch.

Alpha Xi Delta actives gave their pledges a picnic-party last Monday at City Park. Entertainment for the evening was a baseball game which the actives won. Sunday the pledges reciprocated with a picnic for the actives. Recent exchange dinners were held between Phi Kappa Psi and Alpha Gamma Delta, Sigma Nu and Delta Zeta, Delta Tau Delta and Alpha Xi Delta, and Gamma Phi and Phi Tau.

Jim McRoberts was elected president of the Men's Independent Society for next year at the regular meeting of the organization last Tuesday evening.

Other officers elected were: Hilbert Black, vice president; Jim Wakusuki, secretary; and Bill Steer, assistant treasurer.

Initiation ceremonies were held Saturday, May 19, for 12 Delta Zeta pledges. They are: Dorothy Althoff, Carol Charles, Dorothy Cooley, Joyce Crede, Dorothy Fisher, Janis Frye, Carol Grimes, Kathryn Kah, Marcia Kah, Caroline Kuder, Marlene Sibrel, and Joy Traver.

Phi Kappa Tau serenaded Delta Zeta May 15 for Flo Beatty's pinning to John Rowe. Following the serenade the fraternity was invited in for refreshments.

Campus Interviews on Cigarette Tests

Number 20...THE BALTIMORE ORIOLE

Clean-up man on the baseball nine, this slugger doesn't like to reach for 'em... wants it right over the plate.

And that's the way he likes his proof of cigarette mildness! No razzle-dazzle "quick-puff" tests for him. No one-whiff, one-puff experiments.

There's one test, he's discovered, that's right down the alley!

It's the test that proves what cigarette mildness really means.

THE SENSIBLE TEST... the 30-Day Camel Mildness Test, which simply asks you to try Camels as a steady smoke—

on a pack-after-pack, day-after-day basis.

After you've enjoyed Camels—and only Camels—for 30 days in your "T-Zone" (T for Throat,

T for Taste), we believe you'll know why...

More People Smoke Camels than any other cigarette!
